

WEBINAR TITLE: “Evolving European Whistleblower Rights: 2-years of the EU Directive”

DATE: 15 December 2023 at 15.00 – 16.45 CET

REGISTRATION LINK: HERE

Join Whistleblowing International Network (WIN) and University of Göttingen for an insightful webinar as we reflect on “Evolving European Whistleblower Rights: 2-years of the EU Directive on Whistleblowing.” To mark the 2-year anniversary of the official deadline for all 27 EU Member States to transpose the directive, we bring together leading voices on whistleblower protection to provide a progress update, evaluate the effectiveness of the wave of new protections, explore legal perspectives on evolving whistleblowing rights, discuss real-life cases, and uncover the potential for further collaboration and advocacy.

AGENDA

15.00 Opening remarks - Anna Myers – Executive Director, WIN

- State of Play: Progress Update from EU Whistleblowing Monitor

Ida Nowers - Law & Advocacy Manager, WIN

- EU role in Transposition & Implementation: Oversight & Enforcement

Dr Vigjilenca Abazi - Founder, European Whistleblowing Institute

- Legal Consequences for Transposition Failures

Dr Simon Gerdemann - Legal Scholar, University of Göttingen

- Hitting the Mark? EU Minimum Standards & Best Practices

Marie Terracol - Whistleblower Protection lead, Transparency International

- Enhanced Role of Whistleblowing Authorities

Zuzana Dluhošová - Head of the Slovakian whistleblowing authority & Vice Chair of NEIWA

- Country Updates from national experts:

- Germany -Kosmas Zittel – Managing Director, Whistleblower-Netzwerk (WBN)
- Czech Republic - Jan Dupák - Lawyer, Transparency International Česká republika